About the Speaker

Bharat Datt was drawn into Bhagawan's presence for 12 years from 1982 to 1994 spanning 11th grade to his Masters in Bio-sciences where Bhagavan presented him with a gold medal in academics in the 1990 convocation at Prasanthi Nilayam. Following post-graduation, he worked as a faculty and later at the Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Medical Sciences, Puttaparthi. During his time, he was an integral part of the Parthi bhajan group singing bhajans in front of Swami daily from 1984 to 1994. Bharat was also part of a number of Devotional programs performed during Guru Purnima, Maha Sivarathri, Swami's birthday and others. He played the harmonium and keyboard in many recordings/performances including Rama Katha and Sai Katha. Also played background music for many dramas directed by the Lord himself. With Swami's blessings, he also had the opportunity to accompany on the harmonium, great artists like MS Subbulakshmi, P Susheela, P Leela, Malaysia Vasudevan, Pandit Jasraj & Pandit Bhimsen Joshi. He also accompanied the jazz trumpeter Maynard Ferguson on the Piano & the Accordion. Bharat has a great passion for the bhajan genre and the fusion of western & Hindustani to augment devotion. He has also sung & produced 3 bhajan albums – Echoes of the Past, Eternal Quest & My Soul at your lotus Feet.

Bharat is a clinical perfusionist, a profession bestowed on him by Sai and he still pursues the same. In 2021, Bharat was presented with an executive MBA in healthcare from the Jack Welch Management Institute, Strayer University where he received an award– The Welch Scholar Award for a perfect GPA. Additionally, he was cited by the 'Poets and Quants' magazine as one of the top 100 new MBA graduates of 2021 in America. He resides in Orlando, Florida with his family. He is currently the President Of CanAmerica Cardiopulmonary.
